1.1. Introduction

- 1.1.1. The 1996 South African Constitution, by providing a statutory right of access on request to any record held by the state as well as access to records held by private bodies, entrenches the fundamental right to information.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (“the Act”), which came into effect on 9 March 2001, seeks to advance the values of transparency and accountability in South Africa and provides the mechanism for requesters to exercise and protect their constitutional right to request access to a record.

- 1.1.2. The Act establishes the following statutory rights of requesters to any record of a private body if:

- That record is required for the exercise or protection of any of his or her legal rights;
- That requester complies with all the procedural requirements; and
- Access is not refused in terms of any ground referred to in the Act.

In terms of the Act private bodies are required to publish a manual to assist requesters who wish to request access to a record.

- 1.2. Availability of the EOH PAIA Manual and Entry Point for requests

- 1.2.1. This document serves as the EOH manual (“the Manual”) in accordance with the requirements of section 51 of the Act to facilitate access to records held by EOH. A copy of this Manual is available to the public in a PDF (“Portable Document Format”) version on the website of EOH at www.eoh.co.za or on request from the

A requester may act in different capacities in making a request for a record. This will influence the amount to be charged when a request has been lodged.

4. Access Procedure and Requests

The purpose of this section is to provide requesters with sufficient guidelines and procedures to facilitate a request for access to a record held by EOH.

It is important to note that an application for access to information can be refused in the event that the application does not comply with the procedural requirements of the Act. In addition, the successful completion and submission of an access request form does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record. An application for access to a record is subject to certain limitations if the requested record falls within a certain category as specified within Part 3 Chapter 4 of the Act.

If it is reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to the EOH Group's records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such requester.

4.1. Guidance on Completion of Prescribed Access Form: Sec 51 (1) (e)

4.1.1. In order for EOH to facilitate your access to a record you need to complete the attached prescribed access form attached as Annexure B. Please take note that the prescribed access form must be completed in full, failure to do so

3. Type or print in BLOCK LETTERS an answer to every question.
4. If a question does not apply, state "N/A" in response to that question.
5. If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question, state "nil" in response to that question.
